(Trainer, Executive Coach, and Consultant)

Colin Nanton is an intuitive and insightful coach, trainer, and consultant. His area of expertise lies in discovering where teams get stuck and creating experiences and discoveries that remove barriers to success. He is dedicated to transforming human performance. He assesses and re-invents cultural conversations, producing unprecedented returns on investment.

Colin began his career as a police officer with the Halton Regional Police Service. His first eight years were spent working in the areas of uniform patrol, Selective Traffic Enforcement, and as a member of the Tactical and Rescue Unit. He then joined Peel Regional Police where he held a position in the Criminal Investigation Bureau, specializing in child abuse and sexual assault investigations and later fraud investigations as part of the Special Services Unit.

Colin left policing to create Interactive Training Solutions, a consulting company specializing in custom designed assessment, training and coaching in the areas of leadership, development and negotiation. Clients of his organization include Advocate Insurance Group, Ampacet Canada Company, Atomic Energy of Canada Limited, BGM Insurance Brokers, Blockbuster Canada Inc, Canadian Association of Chartered Accountants, Gleeson Insurance Brokers, Grant Thornton LLP, Halton Regional Police Service, IBM Canada, Koinonia Christian Fellowship, LifeChurch International, Microsoft Corporation, the Ontario Police College, the Ontario Provincial Police, PneuTech Systems and TD Canada Trust.

Colin has a Bachelor of Science degree in Honors Co-op Kinesiology from the University of Waterloo. His studies in the Masters of Business Administration program at Wilfred Laurier University specialized in Organizational Behaviour. He is a certified Human Behaviour Consultant with Personality Insights, Atlanta, and is authorized to conduct Team Success Seminars by the Kolbe Corporation, Phoenix. Colin is a certified trainer of the Strategic Life Alignment Seminar and an affiliate with Strategies@Work, Texas. He also conducts certified training in leadership and negotiation and sales through Culture ROI, California. Colin has been training, coaching and consulting since 1983.
