

Bill Zwartbol

Bill Zwartbol is a man with a deep passion for God and seeing the Kingdom of God extended, which motivates him to disciple people in his local church as well as to be very involved within the Christian community in his city.

Currently, Bill is senior pastor of Free Grace Fellowship in Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada.

Prior to accepting his current assignment, Bill was a dairy farmer and businessman. Through this experience, he gained valuable skills for working with a variety of people and developed a heartfelt compassion to serve people.

After graduating from high school in 1981, he joined his father on the family dairy farm where he worked for six years.

In 1987, Bill and his wife, Elaine, started their own dairy farm. During the first four years of farming on their own, Bill also worked in construction and concrete finishing until their farm was expanded to a size that it could carry itself financially. The business was sold after 13 years of successful farming and Bill began his studies for the pastoral ministry.

Bill is zealous in teaching and encouraging believers to embrace a biblical worldview. His passion is to see the redemptive work of Jesus Christ the King impact and transform this world through His ambassadors who have come to understand who they are in Christ.

As a Strategic Life Alignment consultant, Bill is focused on use the C4 principle to help people discover and fulfill their life purpose.

Bill is grateful for the life skills he has learned through his years in business. It has helped him to understand and promote ministry in the marketplace. In addition to his pastoral role, Bill networks with many other church leaders in his community with the intent of bringing greater unity in the body of Christ in his region.

Bill and Elaine have been married more than thirty years. They have six children and serve as foster parents. They reside in Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, where Bill serves as both senior pastor and an elder at Free Grace Fellowship.

Contact Bill at: BillZ@StrategiesWork.com.